

When You're Carrying Everything You've Got On Your Back,
The Last Thing You Need Is Your Rain-Soaked T-Shirt In Your Rucksack Leaking All Over Your Last Pair Of Dry Socks.

Traveluxe. The First Leakproof Travel Bag That'll Keep Your Rucksack Dry and Leak-Free.

Patented Triple-Seal Locking System

The Traveluxe Leakproof Travel Bag is a heavy duty containment bag designed for stowing wet socks, washcloths T-shirts, toiletries- anything that can leak. It isolates any wet and leakable item and prevents it from contaminating the rest of your rucksack. Which means your rucksack stays dry and protected everywhere you go. The secret's a unique patented Triple-Seal Locking System. It forms a watertight barrier for absolute leakproof protection even under extreme tactical environments. And because it's made from a durable 10 mil puncture-resistant vinyl, it'll take lots of punishment. The Traveluxe Leakproof Travel Bag has lots of other applications. Use it for stowing contact lens solution, camouflage cream, sunscreen, even medication. It's an item that'll keep your rucksack dry and leak-free.
